

Eastbrook -- On March 04, 2017 Wayne Haslam, wonderful father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and friend passed, surrounded by his loving family.

In 1956 Wayne graduated from Lee Academy and went on to marry the love of his life, Sally (Sarah Edgecomb) in 1961. Together they had a daughter and two sons. Wayne drove trucks part time for E. D. Holt and worked in the woods. He retired from St. Regis after 30+ years and he began focusing on his firewood business with his son Tim. Together with his family and friends he enjoyed snowmobiling, camping and the Fryeburg Fair which became a family tradition. Wayne was a Master Mason in the Lygonia Lodge.

He is survived by the lady that brought the sunshine back to his life, Louise Dickens of Eastbrook; son, Jeffrey Haslam and wife Claudette of Brockway, NB; daughter, Becky Lane and husband Brian of Eastbrook; daughter-in-law, Pye Haslam and companion Matt McDevitt of Eastbrook; 10 adored grandchildren, Brian, Scott, Brandon, Sara, Sabrina, Rachael, Jenna, Emily, Avery and Devon; 3 great-grandchildren, Gavin, Maddison and Elliot; brothers, Dwight Haslam and wife Tiny of Portland, Donald Haslam of Trenton; sister-in-law, Joanne Haslam; and several nieces, nephews and friends. He was predeceased by his beloved son, Timothy in 2003; his beloved wife, Sarah "Sally" Haslam in 2010; brother, Thurston Haslam; and sister, Donna Barrows.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
